Upon graduation, students will be academically prepared and confident to pursue higher education or specialized career training.

Students will:

Part 1

2.1 think and solve problems using both creative and critical thinking skills;

2.2 read, write and speak the English language effectively for a wide range of purposes, including the interpretation and analysis of both literary and informational texts;

2.3 understand geography, natural resources, and their shaping effect on government, economics and social patterns;

2.4 understand the concept of community within the context of national and world history, comparative forms and influences of governments and major world religions;

2.5 understand and appreciate the basic concepts of fine, visual and performing arts;

2.6 develop an appreciation of at least one other world culture, which may include the understanding of the basic structure of another world language; and

Part 2

2.7 know and apply mathematics to a level of fluency that ensures a broad range of post-secondary opportunities and career choices;

2.8 use analytic and scientific principles to draw sound conclusions;

2.9 understand and apply current and emerging technologies to demonstrate technology literacy and use technology to solve problems using both computational and critical thinking;

2.10 apply academic skills to life situations.

Adopted: April 26, 2006
Revised: August 27, 2014
Revised: October 11, 2017
Revised: October 25, 2017

Monitoring Frequency: Annually